5 Things You Should Know

Order, track, and manage your rewards on our modern and easy to use platform.

Set platform and security preferences for your team members, including two-factor authentication, IP blocking and password rules.

Explore the depth of our global portfolio. Choose from 950+ brands and select the best ones for your program.

Using our API? You can still enjoy the benefits of Vi Now and learn more about your data.

You can be up and running in days, not months. Our proprietary platform is turnkey and customizable.

"The VI Platform is the tool we are using for managing our incentive rewards and we find it to be very user-friendly and fully secure"
